For the past 20 years A Moving Experience, The Arc of Monroe County's modern dance troupe, has delighted countless audiences of all ages with original dances performed in venues as varied as its dancers. With a focus on inclusion and diversity, A Moving Experience utilizes the individuality of its dancers to create and perform dance works relating to the themes of peace and love.

Some of our previous performances include:

Barnes and Noble bookstore, Pittsford
Nazareth College, Pittsford
Dudley School, Fairport
Harley School, Brighton
Sacred Heart Cathedral, Rochester
Aaron Manor, Fairport
Education for Peace conference, Rochester Institute of Technology
Medicaid Service Coordinator conference, Henrietta

Accolades:

Finalists, J.C. Penny/United Way Golden Rule award
Recognized by The White House as a nominee for the President's Service award

Our upcoming events:

Hobart and William Smith Colleges,
Disability and the Arts Festival
Greece Community Center, Performance

Dance is for everybody. I believe that the dance came from the people and it should always be delivered back to the people.
